

PERSONAL INFORMATION COLLECTED BY THE MIGRATE APPLICATION

All personal information collected by the MIGRATE application is subject to the following Specific Privacy Statement, accepted by the data subject prior to the collection of his/her personal data, and is collected with his/her unambiguous consent.

SPECIFIC PRIVACY STATEMENT

1. Description

Through the MIGRATE application your personal data will be collected and further processed for the purposes detailed hereafter under point 2.

As this processing collects and further processes personal data, Regulation (EC) 45/2001, of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data, is applicable.

2. What personal information do we collect, what is the legal basis, for what purpose and through which technical means?

Identification Data:

The personal data collected and further processed include gender, age range, country of origin and education level. No confidential information (name, surname, postal address and e-mail address) is required. In other words, the collection of data is anonymised and cannot be related to any specific user.

Legal Basis of processing:

- The European Parliament and Council Decision of 18 Dec. 2006 on the EC 7th Research Framework Programme (FP7) (2007-2013).*
- Registration and participation of data subjects are provided on a purely voluntary basis.*

Purpose of processing:

The purpose of the processing of personal data for the MIGRATE application is to understand the current knowledge and perception of migration-related issues from a scientific and social perspective.

Technical Information:

The user data are collected through web forms and stored inside a SQL database.

3. Who has access to your information and to whom is it disclosed?

All the personal data collected by the MIGRATE application will be solely used for academic, research and statistical purposes. The results of the analysis may be included in scientific and academic papers or reports.

The possibility to update or erase the above personal data is only granted to the system administrator of MIGRATE. The system administrator of MIGRATE will not share data with third parties for direct marketing.

4. How do we protect and safeguard your information?

The collected personal data is stored on the servers of GEOLab (Geomatics and Earth Observation) at the Como Campus of Politecnico di Milano under the responsibility of Prof. Maria Antonia Brovelli, vice-rector for Como Campus, and underlie the Commission Decision C (2006) 3602 of 17/08/2006 “concerning the security of information systems used by the European Commission” defines IT security measures in force. Annex I defines the security requirements of EC Information Systems. Annex II defines the different actors and their responsibilities. Annex III defines the rules applicable by users. See notification DPO-1946.

5. How can you verify, modify or delete your information?

Registered users have direct password-protected web access to their profile and are able to request to unsubscribe from the application by contacting the project's responsible at the e-mail address provided below.

6. How long do we keep your data?

Your personal data will remain in the database until the end of the project or for a maximum of 5 years starting from filling in the registration form on the internet, unless the Controller launches an update of the registrations, asking the Data subjects to update or cancel the stored information including their personal data.

Registered users have password-protected direct web access to their profile and can cancel their registration at any moment by contacting the project's responsible at the e-mail address provided below. In some cases user_id's unused for a defined period may be automatically deleted from the system.

7. Contact Information

Should you have any queries concerning the processing of your personal data, please address them to the MIGRATE project responsible. On questions relating to the protection of personal data, you can contact as well the MIGRATE project responsible at geolab.como@gmail.com. In any communication with the MIGRATE project responsible, please start the e-mail subject with “[MIGRATE]”.

COLLECTION OF ANONYMOUS TRAFFIC DATA ON THE MIGRATE WEBSITE

When someone browses the MIGRATE Website anonymous site usage information is collected via various technical means. The usage of the site is recorded in log files. These files contain no personal information, nor information about which other sites the visitor has browsed. They allow GEOLab to improve the service by knowing its usage, and are processed anonymously.
